MRS. OGBORN PRESENTS M. LUCEY TIRADE

For The Record-Herald, Sir—As a member of the city council of Richmond, and as an unfettered American citizen who stands for democracy, law and order, I was amazed last night when Mike Lucey, some-time proprietor of a bar on Macdonald avenue, and not altogether famed as one who respects the law of the land, appeared before the city council and for some minutes indulged in an insulting harangue in which he voiced veiled threats towards the council and towards the chief of police of Richmond.

This man Lucey seemed to think it was his right to stand before the city council and use language which no honest man or woman deserved, and which no brave man or woman should have borne.

Lucey went so far in his vituperations as to virtually tell the chief of police, the mayor and the members of the council that he is immune to the laws which are made to preserve peace and which all good citizens are called upon to observe and respect.

Being "Only a woman," I had not the physical strength to place Lucey in arrest.

But as a member of the governing body of this city, twice elected by the suffrage of the people, and as an exponent of those things that I think are essential to the welfare of the decent and respectable men, women and children of this city, I here and now enter my strong protest against the conduct and utterances of Mike Lucey.

His attitude was one of belligerence and defiance, and had he or any other man undertaken such a scene as that in which he played the leading part last night in the city of San Francisco, he would have been placed in jail there to sober up and to learn that a council composed of free-born and law-abiding Californians will not stand for insults and affront from any man or set of men.

MARIE L. OGBORN.

S. P. SCHOOL BONDS BRING $467 PREMIUM

Martinez, August 7.—Freeman, Smith and Camp were the successful bidders for the $10,000 bond issue of the San Pablo School district when the bonds were sold by the Board of Supervisors on Monday. The premium offered by the successful bidders was $467. There were six bidders.

The Supervisors also authorized the County Horticultural Commission to proceed with the poisoning of squirrels on property in the county where necessary action toward the eradication of the pests has not been taken already by land owners.

Rocks Crash Thru Rail Man's House

Riot calls to the police department last night just before 1 o'clock reported a fusillade of rocks being thrown through the front windows of Thomas J. Hanna, Santa Fe foreman, residing at 242 Twelfth street. One large boulder struck the piano.

Mrs. Hanna made the report. A few minutes thereafter, seven or eight pistol shots were fired in the West End, reports varying as to the exact locality.

The police think that the person or persons who hurled the rocks are responsible for the shots.

There were no clues at a late hour.

NEGRO HAS RUN IN WITH RAIL PICKET, CHARGE

Jack Robinson, negro janitor at the Santa Fe station, Richmond avenue, was arrested and charged with assault on complaint of Arthur A. Bernhardt, striking picketer, and was released on $100 cash bail by Police Judge C. M. Odell.

It is reported that Robinson drew a gun on a number of Santa Fe strikers who were doing picket duty.

Moose Plea For Strike Settlement

Night letters expressing sympathy with the striking shop craftsmen, and urging a settlement of the differences between the men and the railroad owners, along the lines suggested by President Harding last night, were transmitted to the President and to Secretary of Labor J. J. Davis by the members of the Loyal Order of Moose and by the Women of Mooseheart Legion.

The action was taken upon the suggestion of Supervisor Zeb Knott. The occasion was the celebration of the first anniversary of Richmond Chapter, Women of Mooseheart Legion, held in Moose hall, which was packed to capacity by Richmond Moose and Legionnaires as well as a large delegation from Martinez.

Following a short meeting, the assemblage repaired to the banquet room, which was prettily decorated in the Moose colors—red, white and blue—while the tables were attractively decorated with flowers. The march was led by Senior Regent Marie Lee of Richmond and Senior Regent Mrs. Greenland of Martinez.

Interesting talks were made by Lloyd Brouche, M. Lindehovs, Mrs. Greenlund and Anthony Reggiardo of Martinez, and Supervisor Zeb Knott of Richmond. A. O. Bennett introduced the speakers with happy and timely remarks.

An entertaining program given included a song by Rebecca Jasvin, accompanied by "Chick" Barry; and a piano solo by Ruth Gardel, accompanied by Dolores Bates on the violin.

The banquet was followed by a dance, the music of which was furnished by "Chick" Barry's orchestra. The prize waltz was won by Anthony Reggiardo and Vallie Schooler, with the second prize going to Bob Connelly and Lillian Blake. The third prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Brennan.

The committee in charge of the party consisted of Mesdames Luella Connelly, Clara Beatty, Spran, Mae Donnelly, Lucy Alexander, Dora Parnell, Vallie Schooler, Valer, Eliza Martin and Corda Anderson.

STRONG BOXES OF CITY HOLD $162,446.10

The monthly strong box of the city auditor read at the meeting of the council last evening shows the finances of the city to be in a healthy condition. There is a balance on hand of $162,446.10 and is represented in the different funds as follows: General $91,166.71; library $2794.13; compensation $19446.67; school $7670.18; memorial building $26047.05; tax sale redemption $583.89; harbor improvement $4188.76; 1912 bond fund $6765.60; 1920 bond fund $3338.05.

Auto Driver in Groom Case Is Out on Bail

Martinez, Aug. 7.—George K. Stewart, 21-year-old rancher of Red Bluff, arrested in Oakland Saturday on a grand jury indictment charging him with driving an automobile while intoxicated, has been released on bail of $2,000, fixed by Superior Judge R. H. Lattimer. Stewart, it is alleged, drove the car that struck down and seriously injured Speed Officer Merton Groom near the Alameda County Line on July 14. Groom is still in an Oakland hospital. Time of Stewart's hearing has not been fixed.

FARLEY WILL SUE MARTINEZ FOR $38,000

Martinez, Aug. 7.—W. S. Farley, former city engineer of Martinez, is to file suit against the town next week, in which he will ask judgment approximating $38,000, he declared today while on a visit here. Farley said he could not state definitely when the action would go of record next week.

The suit, according to Farley, will ask a judgment on money he claims is due him for preparation of plans for street paving and bridge building. Some time prior to the time that the board of trustees voted to disburse with Farley's services and employed B. H. Greene, Farley submitted claims totalling $38,000, but the board refused to approve them.

Board members and Farley differed on the interpretation of his contract regarding the amount of payment he should receive for plans in case they were not used.

Smoke Screen Near Seattle Blurs Landscape

That area of the Pacific Northwest of which Seattle is the metropolitan center is now in the throes of a series of forest fires from which the smokes are so dense as to obscure the scenic and picturesque features, according to E. C. McConnell, who with his wife and children have just returned from a visit to Snoqualmie Falls, Wash.

The McConnells were guests of an old school mate and comrade of his whom he knew back in Iowa. "We swapped yarns of boyhood days, and had a fine visit," McConnell told the Record-Herald.

Love's Fire Cooled By Jail Habit of Husband

Martinez, Aug. 7.—Alleging that her spouse was in jail at least twenty times during their married life, that he came home intoxicated frequently and treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner, Hannah Jensen on Monday filed suit in the Superior Court here against Harry H. Jensen for divorce.

According to the complaint they were married in San Francisco in 1908 and separated this month. Pierce and Carlson of Richmond are attorneys for the plaintiff.

TAFT SMILE ENVELOPS S. F.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—"I'm glad to be here!"

William H. Taft, chief justice of the United States supreme court, yesterday offered these words and what went with them—namely, the unparalleled Taft smile—in response to the welcome of the California Bar Association at the Oakland mole.

Taft thereby did his share toward maintaining a well fixed San Francisco tradition. Every time this most genial of national figures comes to this city, he utters a phrase that is a "booster" classic.

Some years ago Taft said "San Francisco knows how." That has become a civic motto.

Yesterday Taft said: "I'm glad to be here!" And again he voiced the thought of patriotic San Franciscans.

Taft is here in the role of principal speaker at the American Bar Association convention. Thursday morning he will address the nation's legal lights on the topic of "Reforms in Federal Procedure."

KENSINGTON SEEKS LIGHTS

Martinez, August 7.—A petition was received by the Supervisors from residents of Kensington Park near Richmond for a lighting district and an election was called for the first of September.

The Shell Oil company of Martinez was granted a permit to build an overhead crossing over the Fairview road near the James Dent property there.

Harbor Lodge Resumes Meetings

Harbor Lodge of Masons resumed its regular meetings last evening with a get-together-party in Masonic hall. The entertainment of the evening was furnished by Al Paulsen, well known writing artist. Inspiring and instructive talks were made by Judge D. J. Hall, J. F. Brooks and Rev. T. A. Boyer, who are members of Harbor Lodge.

The evening was brought to a close with the serving of a banquet by the wives of the officers. L. M. Johnson presided over the meeting last night.

ROOSTERS AND RATS INSPIRE LADY TALKER

Mrs. C. F. Audibert, of 512 Bissell avenue, made a very telling talk before the council last evening in answer to a complaint from residents in the vicinity of Thirteenth and Bissell asking that what is known as the old McMasters Barn be condemned, as it was unsanitary and was infested with rats.

Building Inspector Wierda said he had investigated the complaint, and that under the law the building could not be condemned, as it had not depreciated more than 25 per cent.

Gentle, But Firm

Mrs. Audibert then took the floor and in a very gentle but firm manner told the council that she had come to Richmond and invested her money here, that she liked the city, that she had built an apartment house on Bissell avenue, and it was her intention some time later to erect an apartment house on Thirteenth, the site of the barn in question.

The lady said an old house she had on Bissell had been condemned, and she had come here and sold it for $20, as that was the only means of getting rid of it under the circumstances.

Later she was notified that she had been assessed for the opening of Fifth street, the bill for which she promptly paid, but the street had not been opened, neither had she received back her money, but the speaker said that was all right.

Another time she received a bill for cutting of weeds in front of her property, for which she also sent a check, and later found that the weeds were knee high and had never been touched, but this was all right, too.

Mrs. Audibert went on to say that she was a law abiding citizen, was always willing to bear her share of the city government, but it did seem to her that there were some people who needed attention as well as herself.

Rats and Roosters

It was her intention to put up a modern building on her Thirteenth street property, when conditions were ripe, but at the present time, there was a chicken ranch on one side; possibly some of the rats from her barn might interfere with these fowls, but on the other hand if there was an apartment house there, the chickens would bother the tenants. She also suggested that the property on the other side of her barn would bear watching, and a close investigation might find things there that the law did not permit.

Mayor Garrard told Mrs. Audibert that the hitch in the Fifth street opening proceeding was halted by the railroad commission, and that the council was powerless in the matter. The result of the discussion was that the council informed Mrs. Audibert there was nothing for the council to do in the barn matter, and the incident closed with smiles on the faces of all.

200 Initiated By Maccabees

Over 200 candidates were initiated into the Knights of the Maccabees at a moonlight initiation which took place Saturday evening at Pinehurst. The event was attended by approximately 1500 delegates from all over the state.

Those attending from Richmond included Walter Conway and O. H. Venne of the Knights; and Commander Louise Stogm. Past Commanders Nola Van Valer and Mary Conway; Mrs. Nettie Wagle and Effie Reynolds of the W. B. A.

Aid Asked For Parks, Library

A special meeting of the council will be held Wednesday evening when the matter of providing additional money for the library and the school department will be taken up and considered.

Last evening a communication was received from the school board in which that body asked that an extra three cents be included in the tax levy to provide money for the fitting up of the playgrounds at the Perce school.

The request of the library board for money for an addition to the present library building will be considered at the same time.

COURTS QUIT FOR LAW MEET

Martinez, Aug. 7.—Superior Judge R. H. Lattimer's court was adjourned this afternoon for the week and unless pressing litigation should arise will remain adjourned until next Monday.

The reason for the adjournment is the convention of the American Bar Association which opens tomorrow in San Francisco. Every Superior Court in the state will be adjourned for the week. Local judges and many local attorneys plan attending the convention. The court of Judge McKennie has been adjourned for a week to permit him of sitting for Judge Bernard Flood of San Francisco.

Would Discontinue Water Service

Permission to discontinue water service near San Pablo has been requested of the Railroad Commission by the Anglo-California Trust Company, as administrator of the estate of W. B. Hillings, and as trustee of the North Richmond Land & Ferry Company. The petition states that there are but five consumers on the system, and that the tract served is only seven hundred feet from the mains of the East Bay Water Company.

More Lights Is Residents' Plea

A number of residents in the vicinity of Eighth and Maple streets petitioned the council last evening for an arc light and a fire alarm box in that vicinity. The proper committees will investigate during the week, and report back next Monday night.

City Employees Are Classified

On recommendation of Fire Chief Roy Lemoin and concurred in by City Manager J. A. McVittie the following classification were given: B. H. M. Smith, mechanic; J. R. Patnot, hoseman; J. H. Patterson, operator, and D. S. Delaney, electrician.

W. C. T. U. Will Meet Today

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Wilson, 235 Ninth street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Business of importance will come before the meeting and all members are urged to be present.

LUCEY MAKES THREATS TO POLICE CHIEF

Mike Lucey, proprietor of what is known as the Bank Bar on Macdonald avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets, appeared before the council last evening, in what appeared to everyone, a partial state of intoxication, and defied the members of the council and the chief of police about ever taking any action against him in the future.

He began his tirade by stating that he had read that the council had placed at the disposal of the chief of police and city manager some of money to be used in ransacking people's homes. Lucey said he was a taxpayer and he wanted to protest against the action.

The speaker further went on in a disconnected manner to state that he had been acquitted in the federal court of a charge of violating the Volstead act, and what recourse had he?

Abuses Police Chief

He started in to abuse Chief of Police Woods, when that official asked the council if he was to be protected. Mayor Garrard called Lucey to order, and cautioned him against personalities.

What Did He Mean?

But Lucey continued to talk, and said he was opposed to some being brought into Richmond and allowed to go through people's homes, and if another attempt was made, that there would be something happen like what occurred in San Francisco last Thursday.

"Isn't that a threat, Mr. Mayor?" asked Councilwoman Marie Ogborn, and again Garrard ordered Lucey to change the tone of his talk.

"Murder" Next Time

Lucey then got up again, and pointing his finger at Chief of Police Woods, said that if he ever attempted to enter his house there would be murder.

Some persons sitting close by Lucey pulled him down, and in a short time he left the council chamber.

The number of spectators at the time of the incident was small, but there was a great deal of subdued excitement in the council chambers.

FIRE LOSSES ARE NOT HIGH

The fire losses in the city of Richmond for July was not large, according to the monthly report submitted to council last evening by Fire Chief Roy Lemoin. The loss on buildings was $4075, on contents $825, and loss on autos $200.

$920 Collected In City Fines

During the month of July, according to the report of Chief of Police Wood filed with the council last evening, $920 was collected in fines. In the same period there were 81 arrests made, 13 for outside departments, and 13 under the Golden Rule method.

Milk Tests Show High Standards

Of the tests of milk, made by the health department during July, there were 21 samples above standard and three below, according to the report made to the council last night by Health Commissioner, C. R. Blake.

Bebe Daniels And Jack Holt Today At T & D Theater

Leaving visiting cards at the homes of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Dweller, has been a recent pastime of Bebe Daniels and Jack Holt, popular Paramount stars.

Of course, the towering rock residences of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. haven't been occupied for more than four thousand years—but inasmuch as the cliff-dwellers were only a short walk from the Arizona "location" camp of the co-stars—it wouldn't have been neighborly not to have dropped in.

For scenes in "North of the Rio Grande," a romantic tale which carries its action above and below the border, the Jack Holt-Bebe Daniels Company camped for several weeks at Mormon Flats, fifty miles from Phoenix, and in the heart of the cliff-dwelling and Apache country. The rough and rugged surroundings are said to have afforded Mr. Holt and a band of twenty-five cowboys splendid opportunities for some "kick" riding.

The thrilling picture of the Great Southwest will feature the bill but a lively Peerless comedy and a scenic film will also compete for favors with the audiences today.

Tomorrow comes the great play, "The Three Musketeers."

THE FAMILY COAL BIN

It may seem like adding insult to injury to the householder to look to his coal bin now. He is inclined to wait until the strikes are settled and things clear up generally. Right there he is wrong.

The prospect of a coal shortage in many localities this winter is plain. If the winter should be severe, there is every prospect of suffering. Whether the mine and rail strikes are settled tonight or next week makes no difference. The wise consumer will estimate his need for the winter, and will place his order as if he expected it to be filled at once. Then he will keep on the job until it is delivered. If it takes weeks or months. Cold nights are scarcely three months away in many parts of the country. Four or five months will bring winter.

THE DOUBLE K. O.

Something said to be unique in the history of boxing occurred in Grand Junction, Colo., on July 26. Two boxers were having a fairly evenly matched battle. It had gone for six rounds. Then, practically simultaneously, each dealt the other a knockout blow; each fell flat, and each remained where he had fallen while the bewildered referee counted them out.

Most tied contests are simple enough. Each contestant does so well that he holds the other back from victory even though he cannot actually beat his adversary. In the boxing instance, however, each contestant won, in that he successfully knocked out his opponent, and each lost by being knocked out. It's a good thing for fans that none of the big fights have ended so.

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, yellow skin and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

Help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause their aches and pains. They not promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 802 E. 9th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary troubles. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to anyone who is troubled in that way, as they are wonderful."

THE POINCARÉ-GEORGE CONFAB

The conference to be held in London between Lloyd George and Poincaré, is looked upon in all quarters as Europe's best hope for a settlement of her financial troubles. There is little doubt that the combined wisdom of these two strong men may accomplish much, but time alone can tell how effective their conference will be.

Sanity is beginning to replace the immediate passion engendered by the war, but the old hates are far from stilled, for all that. France has too lively a sense of her own wrongs and problems to listen to any further suggestions which tend to make life more difficult for her.

Underlying all of the racial and financial problems is the political angle. The parties which are out of power are always watching the policies of the party in office with a view to making political capital out of them, and it will take the utmost caution to prevent this from happening in regard to any decision which the Premiers may suggest.

If politics can be kept out of the situation and justice rules the conference much may be expected from it.

SIDEWALK VAMPS

The "gas hawk," the male prowler who preys upon young girls has been the park of reformers in most communities. Chicago proposes to administer justice impartially by starting a war upon "sidewalk vamps," the little made-up females who haunt most thoroughfares and flirt with all the male persuasion, good or bad, with an eye to rides, dances, free food and drinks.

There is just as much reason for the war upon "vamps" as for that upon "hawks." Both are obnoxious. The female of the species may be less menacing than the male in some instances but she is at the root of much evil. It is largely because there are so many of her type floating about that the well-behaved girl occasionally has an unpleasant experience.

The sidewalk "vamp" may be more brazen than vicious, but she deserves neither respect nor sympathy, even when she meets with the natural result of her freshness, and raises the cry of injured innocence.

It has been said that if there were no "vamps" there would be no "hawks." Chicago is making the test. Other communities should follow.

THE FAMILIAL COAL BIN

It may seem like adding insult to injury to the householder to look to his coal bin now. He is inclined to wait until the strikes are settled and things clear up generally. Right there he is wrong.

The prospect of a coal shortage in many localities this winter is plain. If the winter should be severe, there is every prospect of suffering. Whether the mine and rail strikes are settled tonight or next week makes no difference. The wise consumer will estimate his need for the winter, and will place his order as if he expected it to be filled at once. Then he will keep on the job until it is delivered. If it takes weeks or months. Cold nights are scarcely three months away in many parts of the country. Four or five months will bring winter.

YOUNG BLOOD IN CONGRESS

It is predicted that there will be not only much new blood in Congress after election, but much young blood as well. It is a prospect to be viewed with interest rather than alarm.

There is much to be said for the wisdom of the older man in any campaign, but on the other hand, congressional procedure is permeated with old customs which could well bear exchange for new. It will be interesting to see whether the young blood will accomplish these reforms.

It is said of one young Congressman who is retiring after a single term that he refuses to run again because he is bitterly disappointed at his failure to make any impression upon congressional activities. All his brave notions were flattened out under the juggernaut of precedent. If his ideas were sound it is a pity.

The passing Congress has had many trying problems with which to deal. It is not surprising

R. U. H. S. SCIENCE BUILDING READY

The new domestic science building at the Richmond Union high school will be placed in service for the freshmen department when school opens next Monday. It was announced yesterday by Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms. A final tour of inspection was made yesterday by Superintendent Helms and Architect James T. Nabrett.

The incoming freshmen class will be placed in rooms in the new building and will be conducted as a separate department on the same principle as the junior high schools. Frank Schellenberger, formerly of the Burbank Junior High school of Berkeley, will head the freshmen department. The present teachers of the freshmen classes will assist him. It is expected that about 375 students will be placed in the new building.

The main domestic science building is considered one of the most handsome and modern units of the public school system, costing $65,000 and containing 13 rooms. It contains sewing and cooking rooms, a mechanical drawing room, a teachers' room and a girls' hospital and rest room.

The Nystrom school, which was remodeled during the summer vacation, will be ready for use, while one room in the new building will be placed in use at the beginning of the term.

Jumping Mice In Glacier Park

Jumping mice are pretty little animals which are to be found in Glacier National Park and they are very interesting to observers. Their tails are much longer than those of the common house variety and they have long hind legs like the kangaroo and short fore legs. The latter are rarely used in moving over the ground, as the little creatures prefer to jump on their hind legs. They build nests of grass, spherical in shape and with a hole and sometimes two holes to permit entrance into the interior. These jumping mice are quite tame and do not appear to be greatly disturbed when caught and held in the hand. When the captor holds one of these mice by its tail the animal will squirm until it catches hold of its tail and then it will draw itself up onto the hand of the captor.

This is great sport for the women tourists in Glacier Park. The jumping mouse has a personality of its own which, strange to say, banishes that feminine fear so quickly aroused by even the sight of a house mouse.

Epidemic Prevention Added To Child Feeding By A. R. A. To Save Millions of Lives

Scientific methods are used by the American Relief Administration in Russia. The children who are fed are first given a thorough physical examination to determine what their needs are. They are weighed and records are kept of their underweights. The medical system is used in caring for the undernourished boys and girls. In addition to the examination given for the purpose of determining the amount of nourishment necessary and to facilitate the treatment of disease, the children are also inoculated against cholera, typhoid, paratyphoid and small-pox. The lower picture shows a group of children waiting in front of the medical rooms of the American Relief Administration at one station in Odessa for their examination. Some conception of the work that confronts the doctors and nurses can be gained from this picture. All these children are to be carefully examined and prescribed for. The upper view shows a group of medical workers, all of whom are Russian, and work without pay for the American Relief Administration efforts to check death from disease as well as famine.

Making an Asset of Difficulties

A great opportunity is now before American business—the opportunity of making a big and permanent asset out of the very difficulties of the present situation. The conviction that this can be done is extremely heartening. It is enough to put a new thrill of life and activity into every form of industry.

From one point of view the present situation is by far the most desirable, the sanest, and the most hopeful this country has ever seen. Why? Because it brings into bold relief, through sheer necessity, the latent power to create conditions as we would like to have them.

The curtailment of Demand for the products of industry brought us face to face with the question, hitherto ignored, as to what causes demand. Then it was discovered that Demand was a created thing, and that more of it could be created in almost any direction—if enough of the right effort were applied.

Chief among the means of creating Demand is now seen to be Advertising. Wherever you find a big demand for any product you find, invariably, that the demand for that product has been stimulated by human effort, and chiefly through advertising.

It is obvious to any one who will think it through that the present demand for any product could be substantially lessened if it were possible to eliminate all forms of advertising—including pictures, displays, and word of mouth, as well as printed and painted messages—and just let that product depend on the natural or unstimulated demand.

And it is equally obvious that a demand for any worthy product can be created and stimulated by means of Advertising.

This fact puts within the hands of the business man the means of creating his own market. That would be the biggest asset he could have—an assured market for all he could produce.

"Buck" Jones in Thriller Tops Macdonald Bill

Just what "Western Speed" amounts to will be made clear at the Macdonald theater tonight, where Charles Jones, the Fox star, opened in his latest vehicle, bearing that velocity-implying title.

Jones enters the action with a bang that smacks of tornado doings, drives through five reels of desperate riding, adventurous gunplay and romantic love-making, and exits with a dash that leaves a willing bride in his arms and a smile on the spectator's face. The story is of a cowboy who wins the love of a girl who early in the story expresses intense hatred for him—by first saving his life during a runaway and then by saving her father's name and honor by puncturing the villainous plans of a gang of crooks who hope to convict the parent of a crime they committed.

The story is carefully handled, and an excellent cast has been selected to support the virile Jones. The beautiful Eileen Percy is his leading woman. The settings—most of them are taken in the outdoors—are exceptionally pleasing and constitute a glowing background suitable to the picture's romance.

"Western Speed" will please the most fastidious picture fans and revive hope in those who are seeking something new in western productions. It is a clean-cut outdoor cinema play with a positive punch—the kind that film audiences love to see.

It is a screen version of "Lynch Law," written by the noted novelist, William Patterson White. Direction was in the hands of William Wallace and Scott Dunlap.

Sage and Sulphur Darkens Gray Hair

Brush this through faded, streaked locks and they become dark, Glossy, Youthful

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle by asking at any drug store for this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

MAN IN ARREST IN MARTINEZ WANTED IN S.F.

When the sheriff's office at Martinez arrested a man who gave his name as Bob Reed there last Friday on complaint of a tailor who charged Reed with larceny of a suit of clothes, Reed protested vigorously, and claimed to be an insurance solicitor.

When Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smiley went through their batch of circulars descriptive of "men wanted" elsewhere, he found a picture of an ex-convict from Arizona who was listed as Felix Fulton that he says is without doubt a picture of Reed.

Reed or Fulton is said to have violated his parole from Arizona, and will be turned over to Chief of Police Daniel O'Brien, of San Francisco, who told Smiley the man is badly wanted.

George Tandy's Birthday Honored

A birthday surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. George Tandy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stockie, 517 Pennsylvania avenue. Games were played for prizes. The tables were attractively decorated in pastel shades. The favors were dolls garbed in Colonial dresses in pastel shades.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Tandy, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lambrecht, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stockie, Miss Marie Tandy, Miss Grace Oringo, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stockie, Mr. Russell, Mrs. T. N. Smith of San Francisco, Mrs. W. J. Spotswood of San Francisco; Mrs. E. H. Harrington and daughter, Miss Ruth Harrington, of Berkeley; Mr. and Mrs. George O'Leary, of Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer Bickford of Patterson.

Sister For First Position

"Oh, Barbara, I have a job at last. Isn't it wonderful! It's my first job and I am so excited about it. I am to begin work next Monday. Let's do something to celebrate."

"Celebrate? Why don't you wait until you get your first pay? That's the time to celebrate. You'd better get busy and get your clothes ready. You know you have to finish those three pieces of lingerie and sew buttons on two blouses, not to mention a hundred other things."

Oh, sisters are always taking the joy out of life. When you say 'clothes' I am downright discouraged. I haven't any clothes fit for office wear and I can't buy them till I get my first check."

"Well, you do need a new suit and hat and some blouses, too. You can't work in those middy blouses and other clothes you wore to high school. I'll tell you what: You go out to the Semi-annual Clearance Sale at Cherry's. That's at 515 13th street. One can get very attractive suits, coats, dresses, etc., there and make arrangements for monthly payments. I will take care of the first payment for you. Then you can begin work in the night sort of clothes."

Key Ferries Promise 15 Min Service

A new type of turbine generator using direct current will be installed in the two ferries built for the Key Route. The electrical equipment for the ferries is being installed by the General Electric Company. The motors will be of the double armature type and will be driven by a steam turbine generator set rated at 1100 kilowatts, or about 1500 horsepower.

The new ferries will be placed in operation this fall and will be on a fifteen minute schedule because of the increased speed developed by the electric drive. Because of the shortened running time the lunch rooms will be eliminated.

The ferries will be equipped with 1200 horsepower motors at either end and the electric apparatus is controlled from the engine room. The employment of direct current, instead of alternating current will simplify the control mechanism.

"The Stranger" On Program at Tent Theatre

The man who plays the title role in "The Stranger" at Jennings' tent theater developed an attack of something like hysteresis yesterday and was unable to speak his lines last night, so the management shifted the program and gave "The Gambler and the Lady" to a good audience.

This play deals with the old days on the Mississippi river. Days immortalized by Mark Twain in his "Life on the Mississippi," when planters played for bales of cotton and given plantations; when maidens even sometimes were the stakes for which they played.

"The Stranger" will be given tonight. This is a high grade tale which treats of mysteries.

The management would like the public to bear in mind that the tent is warm and comfortable, notwithstanding the wintry winds that blow outside.

STATE HOUSING ACT OPPOSED BY LUMBERMEN

San Francisco, August 7.—California lumbermen have started a statewide campaign to defeat the State Housing Act, up for referendum at the November election, which denies the citizens of any incorporated community in California the right to build homes with shingle roofs. This course was decided upon at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the California Lumbermen, because the anti-shingle clause, inserted so adroitly that it was not discovered until after Governor Stephens had signed the measure, is manifestly unfair to lumber interests of California, it is said.

When it was learned that under the act as signed, home-builders would not be allowed to use shingles on the roofs of their houses, it was too late for any change. The Commission of Immigration and Housing of California, under whose jurisdiction the State Housing Act is enforced, publicly repudiated the act, and Paul Scharrenberg, chairman of the commission, has written the opposition argument to be used in the referendum fight. Under the act nothing but "approved" patent roofing can be used and the clauses are so worded that the smallest shack would come under the provisions of the law.

The State Housing Act is Senate bill No. 288 and was introduced in the last Legislature by Senator Lester G. Burnett of San Francisco. After describing "semireproof" buildings as those which must make use of "approved" patent roofings, it includes every home within corporate limits in California with the following clause:

"Every wooden building hereafter erected in any incorporated town, incorporated city, or incorporated city and county shall have the roofs thereon constructed of the same kind of material and in the same manner hereinbefore provided for semireproof buildings."

Indicative of the awakening when the true import of the bill became known, is the fact that, in the twelve days left in which a referendum petition might be filed with the Secretary of State, 53,900 voters signed the petition.
